 Chief, Management Staff, DDA

SUBJECT: SSCI and HPSCI Markup on the 1987 NFIP

REFERENCES: A. Compt 86-1131, Subject: HPSCI Markup on the 1987 NFIP
 B. Compt 86-927, Subject: SSCI Markup on the 1987 NFIP

1. The referenced documents, which are attached, require responses from the Offices of Communications, Training and Education, Information Technology, and Personnel. In addition, the documents contain a number of recommendations and critical comments about Agency operations and procedures and several congressionally-directed actions due later in the year which may involve all DA Offices. At this point, Offices except the four previously mentioned, are FYI addressees only.

2. The Offices of Communications, Training and Education, and Information Technology should prepare appeals to the proposed program reductions that are contained in the SSCI/HPSCI markup, Reference A. The memorandum from the Comptroller provides instructions for preparing the appeals which must be submitted to the DDA Management Staff by 14 August 1986.

3. At this time, the SSCI markup contains one congressionally-directed action for which a written report is required. The Office of Personnel, in coordination with appropriate DA Offices, is tasked to prepare the report on CIA personnel procedures as outlined by the Comptroller in paragraph 2 of Reference B. (See page 84 of SSCI report). The report is due to the DDA Management Staff by 21 November 1986.
